Rest In Peace

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isaiah 8:23–9:3; 1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17; Matthew 4:12-23

“The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light.” Two themes seem to reoccur throughout the readings for this weekend — light and joy.

The first reading from the Book of Isaiah begins with the statement, “First the Lord degraded the land of Zebulon and the land of Naphtali.” Most of us are familiar with the fact that there were twelve tribes in Israel. The twelve tribes were headed by the twelve sons of Jacob. Zebulon was the second son and Naphtali was the sixth son. The lands referred to in Isaiah are the lands occupied by the tribes headed by those two sons. It is also important to know that these became the area we call Galilee, where Jesus began His ministry as we hear in today’s Gospel.

Isaiah prophesies that these lands of Zebulon and Naphtali will be blessed by the presence of the Christ and that He will bring to them the Gospel, the Good News. The presence of the Gospel will bring great light, great understanding, and great joy. “You have brought them great joy and abundant rejoicing.”

In our second reading, Paul’s first letter to the Corinthians parallels the first reading and the Gospel. St. Paul points out that he brought the Gospel to these people so that they might share in the light and joy of Jesus Christ. Paul is concerned about the divisions which have sprung up among the Corinthians. He clearly points out that it should not be he (nor Apollos, nor Cephas) on whom they should focus, but on the Gospel, the Word, and on “our Lord Jesus Christ.”

As Disciples, we may find ourselves, like the Corinthians, at times divided, at times in conflict with those near us and those whom we love. We, too, need to follow Paul’s advice to keep our focus on the Lord, on loving Him, serving Him, and responding to His call.

Today’s Gospel from Matthew needs to be placed in context especially to the first reading. What is proclaimed in the Gospel occurs at the very beginning of Jesus’ ministry, just after His Baptism and after His 40 days in the desert. Upon His return He hears that John the Baptist has been imprisoned. In fulfillment of the prophecy, we heard in the first reading, Jesus begins His ministry in Capernaum, the center of the region once known as the Land of Zebulon and the Land of Naphtali. Jesus takes the next step by calling Andrew, Peter, James, and John to follow Him. This is the same calling about which Paul writes to the Corinthians, and to which each of us is called.

In response to today’s scripture passages in what ways are we called to spread the light of Christ and the joy of the Gospel?

This next line may help, especially with the lack of sun this winter.

This little light of mine—I’m going to let it shine—O, this little light of mine—I’m going to let it shine. 🎵

Until We Meet at the Table,
Fr. Fred

St. Peregrine Novena
St. Catherine of Alexandria
10621 S. Kedvale

St. Peregrine is the patron saint for persons suffering from illnesses of all types in particular cancer. Saint Peregrine was healed of a cancerous ulcer on his leg which was considered beyond saving. The fame of this event in 1325 spread rapidly around the western Church.

Christians, and especially the sick, began to invoke his name and seek his intercession for the relief of their suffering and even for a cure from sickness. The canonization of St. Peregrine in 1726 increased people's devotion to him which spread to the universal Church.

St. Catherine of Alexandria will begin offering a Novena to St. Peregrine at 7:00p.m. in the church. The Novena will be held for 9 Mondays. All are welcome.
