Theresa, Adam & Louise

My Dear Friends of St. Catherine,

I am writing this letter to let you know that I have accepted the position as Pastoral Associate at St. George Parish in Tinley Park. This opportunity was something I could not pass up. My passion is music and liturgy and this role will give me the fulfillment that is needed in my life. I have to follow God's call, and this is where I am being called in my ministry at this point in time. My last day at St. Catherine's will be August 11th.

I have truly enjoyed the past two years being the Coordinator of Family Faith Formation at St. Catherine of Alexandria. It has been such an honor and privilege to work with all of you while spreading the good news of our Lord. I am so thankful to each and every one of you for being so welcoming and making me feel like I was a part of the SCA family from the moment I started here!

Please keep me in your prayers as I will keep you in mine. It's not a goodbye, it's a see you later.

Sincerely Yours In Christ,
Ms. Theresa Ward

My Dear People of St. Catherine,

I thank Theresa Ward for her two years here as our first Coordinator of Family Faith Formation. She brought a youthful enthusiasm to our program. As a young person of faith, she shared the love of Jesus which she had with all of us. New to this position, as I worked with her, I found her eager to learn. I appreciate how she worked with our teachers, catechists and parents in preparing our students for the Sacraments of Reconciliation, First Eucharist, and Confirmation. As parents brought their newly born children to St. Catherine for Baptism, she congratulated them and welcomed them in our Baptismal Preparation classes. She trained our Altar Servers to prayerfully serve at Mass. With our RCIA candidates, she was able to reach out to and work with other parishes which also had RCIA candidates to be welcomed into the Church. She was gracious and appreciative to those who helped her with various responsibilities. For the last two summers, she provided the opportunity for our young people to come together with teens from others parishes to play in the coed summer parish softball league. As a spectator, watching our teens play, win or lose, I saw that they had a lot of fun. I prayerfully wish her well in her new ministry as a Pastoral Associate at St. George in Tinley Park.

I am in the process of putting together an updated Coordinator of Family Faith Formation job description. I am doing this in consultation with my staff and with key people from the Archdiocese. This FFF position will be posted shortly on our Parish Website and Facebook Page. I will be posting this opening on the Archdiocese Employment Opportunities Website, as well as other websites. I will also be reaching out to local Catholic Universities, pastoral formational programs, and Catechetical groups.

Our Religious Education Program will begin on Sunday, September 10th. The catechists for this year are in place. Our secretarial staff will continue to process the registrations. Parents are to submit their registration forms by August 1st. Theresa Ward will continue to be in her office through August 11th. Questions can also be directed to the rectory office. The Baptismal Preparation classes will also continue. After August 11th, please call my parish secretary, Theresa Ready, to schedule your child for Baptism.

On Tuesday, July 11th, I attended the Oak Lawn Village Board of Trustees monthly meeting. My purpose was to thank the Village of Oak Lawn and our Police Department for all their support before and during our Carnival. My "thank you" was as follows:

"Good morning, everyone. I am Fr. Dennis Ziomek, Pastor of St. Catherine of Alexandria parish, on 107th and Kedvale. From June 7 through June 11, St. Catherine held its annual carnival. Everyone had a good time, and it was a success. I would like to thank the Village of Oak Lawn and particularly the Oak Lawn Police and Police Chief Daniel Vittorio for all your support and help, ensuring that everyone had a safe and fun time. I enjoyed talking with the officers, all who were most professional. Our parish prays every weekend at Mass for police, firefighters, military, and all first responders. I also would like to thank all our neighbors for their patience and understanding. I would wish everyone a most relaxing and enjoyable summer. God Bless."

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Dennis ZI
