

St. Catherine of Alexandria

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 21, 2024

3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. - Mk 1:19-20

Healthy Approach for Losing a Loved One to Suicide

Topics:

- Signs to watch for
- What resources are available
- LOSS Program
(Loving Outreach to Survivors of Suicide)
- Dealing with guilt and anger

Presented by Rev. Charles T. Tubey
Catholic Charities of Chicago

St. Francis of Assisi Parish
15050 Wolf Road in Orland Park
Sunday, January 28 from 3:00pm to 4:00pm

We are very grateful to everyone who helped put our Christmas decorations away.

May God bless you!

Thank You

My Dear People of St. Catherine,

The freezing cold of last week affected us all. With the temperatures moderating a little, we can return now to our normal routines. Because Mass attendance was understandably down last week, I want to make sure that you are aware of the announcement I made last week at the Masses:

I speak to you this weekend with mixed emotions. This past Monday I received a letter from Cardinal Cupich confirming my retirement effective June 30. He had granted me a one year extension for this current year. I am one of the last of the ordination Class of 1978 to retire. I have been blessed in so many different ways as a Priest of the Lord. I am also grateful to you, the people of St. Catherine for your support and love for these 11 years as your pastor. With Jesus as the vine, we have worked together in the vineyard of the Lord as His disciples, bearing much fruit. I have enjoyed being your pastor. I have fallen in love with St. Catherine, and I love you. The Priests Placement Board now begins the process for the selection of a new pastor. I will continue to be your working pastor until the end of June. My retirement is from the administrative responsibilities of a pastor, not from priesthood. I look forward, not without some anxiousness, to my next stage of priesthood. My good friend, Fr. Ken Fleck, is a good example for me of a retired priest who continues to enjoy ministry. Please read my bulletin letter (inserted into this weekend's bulletin), which goes into more detail about the process of selecting a pastor as well as my hopes in retirement. Inserted into the bulletin is a short 3 question survey from the Priests Placement Board to help with the selection of a new pastor. Please return by next weekend. By the way, this stole, which I just pulled out of storage, was made by my mother 45 years ago, when I was ordained a priest. Please pray for me in these upcoming months, as I will pray for you. God bless.

The Priests Placement Board "Survey of Parishioners regarding New Pastor Selection" has been inserted once again into the bulletin. The deadline for returning has been extended through Sunday, January 28. It's only 3 questions. Please take the time to complete.

The Archdiocese for quite a while has given permission, since the easing of COVID-19 restrictions, for resuming the practice of receiving under both kinds "Species," the sacred bread and wine, the Body and Blood of Christ. At St. Catherine, we have been very cautious in resuming this practice. We will resume this practice only at the 9:30am Mass to begin with. If you also wish to receive the Precious Blood, a Minister of the Eucharist will be on the right side as you come forward to receive our Lord, who will wipe the rim of the cup after every reception. Dipping the Eucharist you have received into the sacred wine, (Intinction) is NOT allowed. We continue to be very cautious with reception under both kinds. Please refrain from receiving if you feel at all sick. Jesus is fully present whether one receives Holy Communion as only one kind or under both kinds. The Catechism of the Catholic Church states:

"Since Christ is sacramentally present under each of the species, Communion under the species of bread alone makes it possible to receive all the fruit of Eucharistic grace. For pastoral reasons this manner of receiving Communion has been legitimately established as the most common form in the Latin rite. But 'the sign of Communion is more complete when given under both kinds, since in that form the sign of the Eucharistic meal appears more clearly.' ..." (No. 1390).

What is most important is to come to Mass and receive our Lord in Holy Communion.

Yours in Christ—Fr. Dennis ZI

MINISTRY OF CARE TRAINING

Participation in these three sessions meets the Office for Divine Worship, Archdiocese of Chicago, requirements to be eligible for mandating as a parish Minister of Care, ministering to the sick and homebound members of the parish. Participants must be approved and sent by a member of their parish Pastoral Team. Preparation includes such topics as spirituality of ministry, ministry to the aged, the experience of suffering, dying and death, pastoral listening skills, prayer and Eucharist, and the theological and practical dimensions of ministry. This seminar provides fresh theology and insights into the pastoral practice of the Ministry of Care.

DAY AND DATE OF PRESENTATION:

The following is the first paragraph by Kathryn Clarke from her booklet, An Invitation:

"In order to maintain God's Eucharistic presence in the world, we require a group of like-minded people who will provide companionship for Christ. The only qualification is that one is willing to sit in front of a Tabernacle or in an Adoration Chapel for 30-60 minutes once per week. We often build up to this. How is this different from what we do currently in Eucharistic Adoration? There is no difference. If we are already doing this, we are doing our part to preserve the presence of Christ for the next generation."

This booklet, located in the back of our church, is available to you while the supply lasts.

Direction For Our Times Lay Apostles of the Returning King (ARK)

Please join us! We will be meeting to pray the Rosary, and Divine mercy Chaplet and also hear the monthly message. If you are a mom or dad picking up your children after school, the timing is perfect. Come a little early and join us in prayer. All are welcome!

We meet the first Tuesday of the month at 2:15pm in the Adoration Chapel. The Adoration Chapel is located at 10600 S. Karlov. Please enter through the front door to the Adoration Chapel on Karlov.

Dear St. Catherine Families,

As a parent of school-aged children, it may seem like they will never grow up and become independent. However, time passes quickly, and before you know it, your children will be adults. For Christian parents, it is essential to instill key truths, beliefs, and character traits in their children during these years. It is a privilege, but also a daunting responsibility, especially in a world where Christian values and beliefs are not always accepted.

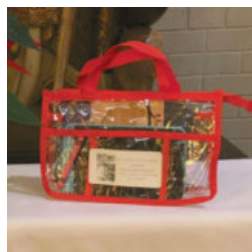

Thankfully, God has provided guidance for parents and their children in His Word, the Bible. The Bible contains real-life examples of families, both good and bad, providing parents with examples of effective parenting. As a parent, you can trust that God will give you the grace, patience, and wisdom you need to raise your children. It is important to remember that sin has affected God's perfect world, including His ideal for family life. Some parents face unique challenges, such as single parenting or raising a child with special needs, but with God's help, you can overcome these challenges.

Whatever your situation, we trust God's power will support you in your efforts to raise up good young men and women who love Him with all their heart, soul, mind, and strength (Luke 10:27).

As mentioned earlier, you are not alone in this process. At St. Catherine of Alexandria Parish, we welcome young children from their early years. To engage even little children in the Liturgy, we have launched a new set of activities called "Craft Activities for Toddlers and Children." We have created these activities with the aim of keeping our little ones engaged while they attend Mass. Over time, we plan to introduce different projects for our little ones to enjoy. We welcome suggestions as well. If you would like to know more information or have suggestions for this project, please contact me directly at 708-423-5747.

Parenting is one of God's most important callings. Children are a gift and blessing from God (Psalm 127:3-5). Only Jesus achieved perfection, thus God does not expect parents to be perfect. He encourages us to look to Christ, and to follow in his footsteps as best we can, seeking his guidance.

In Christ,
Sandra Bustamante
Coordinator of Family Faith Formation

KEEPING TEEN RELATIONSHIPS HEALTHY AND SAFE

Presentation on Teen Dating Violence

Christ the King Church

9345 S. Hamilton in Chicago

Tuesday, February 6 at 7:00 PM

Parents, guardians, and grandparents, of junior high and high school teenagers, as well as school personnel and interested adults are encouraged to attend this presentation. The program will be offered by the staff of A New Direction and is sponsored by the Domestic Violence Awareness Committees of Christ the King, St. John Fisher, St. Cajetan, St. Christina and St. Barnabas.

Ericka Swanson and Rita Ryan of A New Direction will define abuse, show patterns of abuse in relation to Teen Dating Violence, and will introduce scenarios and helpful resources. Learning about healthy relationships at this age can go a long way towards stopping the cycle of Domestic Violence, and can set youth on a better path for future relationships.

BEDS Plus is providing help... and hope...for the homeless right here in the Burbank-Oak Lawn area!

We have opened a full-time shelter at the former Aloha Motel located at 8515 S. Cicero Avenue in Chicago. This facility will provide homeless individuals an opportunity to meet with our case managers regularly to find solutions to their homelessness.

And you can help! Right now, we really need volunteers to help us with meals at the shelter. We will be serving 21 meals each week and that takes work. You can volunteer to prepare meals, serve meals, or greet and help our guests. Give as little as 3-4 hours a month. Share the meal prep (church groups, friends, family) or bring a friend or two to serve meals. If you are looking for a way to help the homeless population, this is it. Call Bill Burke at 708-831-2237 or email at burke@beds-plus.org.
